The King's "Barber."

In the June number of the Overland Monthly, a rather insignificant magazine published in San Francisco, W. N. Armstrong publishes an article in which he by all means endeavors to ridicule Kalakaua and his trip around the world, and revels in insults and slurs against the Hawaiians.

by a beautiful picture of Armstrong, who appears clothed in the gorgeous uniform of an Hawaiian ambassador, for which the victim of his ridicule presumably paid. Mr. W. N. Armstrong, who has been a failure in every occupation undertaking by him and who simply owed to the King's friendship his appointment, was made Attorney-General of the Kingdom of Hawaii in 1880, and he now shows his gratitude to the late monarch by abusing him and heaping ridicule and vilification on him, his sising his salary, either as Attorney-General or as Minister of State. He never appeared in the courts. He never did a stroke of work within the function of his offices. It was under his administration that the notorious palace job was perpetrated, in which the country was muleted in many thousands of dollars. But he drew his salaries and don't you forget it. He now considers the King's journey a farce, if not a fraud. If so, why did he advocate it, support it and assent to it? Why did that virtuous man go with the King if he knew that nothing could be gained by the journey? If the King's trip was extravagant, unnecessary and ridiculous, why did Mr. Armstrong give his countenance to it, and why did he consent to go himself? He went, however, at the expense of the King and he now dead monarch was foolish day schools. In former days F W McChesney vs. Antone marine railway.

It cannot be denied that the roads in Honolulu and suburbs are kept in a very fair and good condition. The road supervisor is devoting all his time and as much money as he can get in keeping the roads in good order and the driving and rid-ing public appreciates his ef-forts. Nowadays, we do not drive intheold-fashioned brakes that used to shake the in-sides out of the driver. We do not either patronize old stifflegged horses the motions of which were mild, only in comparison with riding on a rail out of a western town.
